

J. McENIRY IS HISTORICAL SOCIETY HEAD

Meeting of Officers and Interesting
Reports Precede Program at Annual Meeting.

In the annual election of officers last evening, M. J. McEniry was chosen by the members of the Rock Island County Historical society as the president of that organization for the coming year. He succeeds J. H. Hauberg in that post. The session took place in the Rock Island club. The other officers chosen are:

Vice president—Phil Mitchell.
Secretary—Mrs. K. T. Anderson.
Treasurer—Arthur Burrall.
Curator—John H. Hauberg.

Directors—William A. Meese, Phil Mitchell, Sherman W. Searle, J. B. Oakleaf, David Sears, Judson D. Metzger, John H. Hauberg, Arthur Burrall, Mrs. Edna A. Tucker, Mrs. Harry Ainsworth and C. B. Chamberlin.

Hauberg Reports.
The retiring president, John H. Hauberg, who acted as chairman, delivered an interesting report upon the advance of historical projects during the year. He mentioned a number of fields in which the recording of history of the county should be accomplished, such as the industries that once boomed in this vicinity but now gone, coal mines, lime kilns and the like. He also said that steps, unsuccessful so far, are being taken to secure the old Sauk village site for a public park, and that a historical pageant was being arranged to take place here next summer, which may be an opening for the further advance of the historical work.

tion to the start we have made in the exhibition of relics," said Mr. Hauberg. "We now have four attractive cabinets with plate glass fronts on the ground floor of the court house, and in the lobby where everyone who enters the building may see them. We want someone—or several, possibly—to substitute the exhibits in one of these cabinets with a collection of relics from the battlefields of Europe. Will one of our returned soldier boys, or some other person, please come forward with such a collection?"

Tells of Exhibits.
In his capacity as curator, Mr. Hauberg told of the exhibits loaned or presented to the society for display during 1919.

Two piano numbers, Nocturne by Chopin, and "Old Black Joe" were beautifully played by Mrs. Alice Brown Marshall. Mrs. Edna A. Tucker read a well prepared paper on "The Life and Services of Benjamin D. Walsh." William D. Barge showed considerable preparation in his pleasing and instructive address, "Early Fur Traders of Rock Island and Vicinity."

SECRETARIES OF OTTUMWA ADMIRE Y. M. C. A. BUILDING

The Rock Island Y. M. C. A. building is considered worthy of study as a model in association buildings, as indicated by the visit of three Y. M. C. A. workers from Ottumwa, Iowa, where the building of a new Y. M. C. A. in the near future is contemplated.

The visitors were R. T. Hudson, general secretary of the Ottumwa Y. M. C. A.; E. J. Eigenmann, physical director, and R. L. Rayburn of the Y. M. C. A. building bureau of New York, who is acting in an advisory capacity for the Ottumwa workers.

They state that the Rock Island building has many unusually fine features, some of which the increased cost of building materials would not now permit in erecting. They particularly named the extra large lobby, classroom and club room space, and the three-story-high gymnasium.
